

A great job at Pferdesport Gillinger in Katsdorf, in the Upper Austrian Mühlviertel in Austria:

"Our horses are our friends and are part of the family!"

We are seeking a committed person with basic knowledge of looking after competition horses for our international driving sports stable. Horse care, stable work, training support, competition accompaniment... with a focus on driving sport - in the best working atmosphere.

The tasks include daily stable work, looking after our horses, and preparing for training and at international driving sports events. Supporting the team at the competitions as groom also allows you to gain a lot of experience in driving sport.

Nice accommodation in a family environment is provided. A very interesting job where you can gain a lot of experience in international driving sport, in a future-proof job with good pay."
